ITH - Advanced Beekeeping Classes	May - Sept	AM/ PM	$50/Class	$75
-----------------------------------	------------	--------	------------	------	--

You know what the different bees look like: queen, worker, drone. You know what capped honey, brood and eggs look like, and can identify some of the information you are seeing on the frames, but know there's more. These classes are what you are looking for. The classes begin in May and are offered one/month May thru September, with no classes in August. These classes are more flexible on topics to include the interests and obstacles of the students. We also do our best to visit and offer demonstrations in the student's yard during these classes. You can think of this as a free hive visit. More information can be viewed on our website. Please forward your deposit of $75 to hold you space. All classes will be schedule for 9 to noon, until we are full. Then we may open classes for afternoons. It is our preference to offer smaller classes for 15 students+/- . Dates: May 10, June 14, July 12 & September 13. Due to the CV we may offer classes via Zoom.
